

About Us

Last Updated Friday, 27 February 2009

Webupright has been developing and promoting websites since 1999, including search engine marketing. We are also experts in increasing your sales through heuristic (usability) evaluations. Barbara Camisa is the principal of Webupright. She has extensive experience in web development of small to mid-size sites, web site evaluations, internet marketing, web project management, web graphics, virtual web hosting/Linux systems administration and domain names.